So^th. Carolina THE GAZETTE.

MONDAY October 8th, 1753.

LONDON, July 10.

LETTERS from Paris intimate, that the parliaments of Normandy and Dijon, continue their proceedings against the clergy with more vigor and resolution than ever, notwithstanding a second arret, containing a general prohibition of all such proceedings, has been signified to the former.

Paris-a-la-main, July 2. The arret of the parliament of Toulouse, dated the 18th of last month is handed about here, which sentenceth a priest of the society of Jesus to be admonish'd, and forbids him teaching or professing during the term of five years, for having advanced in a sermon propositions contrary to the laws, which in his interrogatories he was obliged to retract; whereto he added, that if he could have expressed himself in stronger terms, he would have made use of them. The court enjoined his superiors to assist in the execution of this arret, on pain of having their temporals seized.

Paris, July 6. The Earl of Albemarle has occasionally intimated to our ministry, that the king of Great-Britain would be very glad if the French vessels avoided such steps as might give room to suspect them of having an understanding with those persons that are endeavouring to create new troubles in Scotland. We are assured, that orders in consequence have been sent down to the principal ports of the kingdom,—— and perhaps private instructions to wink at the Breach of the public Orders.

Paris-a la-main, July 9. The affairs of the parliament still remain in the same situation, it not being yet known when they will be recalled.

The Sieur Voltaire, who has been detained at Frankfort by order of the king of Prussia, is set at liberty, and is actually upon the road to France.

Paris, July 9. The grand chamber at Pontoise remains firm in their resolution, not to resume their ordinary business, 'till the other chambers are restored. The rest of the parliaments throughout the kingdom continue their proceedings against such of the hot-headed clergy as refuse the sacraments to dying persons.

Rouen, July 11. The attorney general having retarded for 24 hours the execution of the arret for seizing the person of the vicar of Verneuil, thereby gave time to the court to send to that place three brigades of the Marshalsea, which protected the curate and the vicar in the exercise of their functions, notwithstanding the decrees against them. The order of the court sent to the parliament occasioned several deliberations, the result of which was to supercede the proceedings against the curate and vicar of Verneuil, and to make remonstrances to the king. This was carried by 43 against 32.

On the 24th the secretaries, sent by the parliament to the bishop of Evreux, reported his answer, whereby that prelate declares that he will obey the orders of the court, implied in its arret published the 20th, which directs him to conform to the Holy Canons, and to the laws of the kingdom, of which the constitution Unigenitus is a part.

London, July 10. Orders are given for several of the men of war at Portsmouth, to be forthwith got ready for the sea.

We are assured, that Col. Lawrence is appointed governor of Nova Scotia, in the room of Col. Hopson, who has resign'd.

London, July 17. The Britos, Wilson, from Greenland, is arrived in the River, by whom we have the following particulars, viz. the ships from London have caught 71 Whales; from Whitby 3; Newcastle 5; Yarmouth 1; Leith 8; Glasgow 3; Dundee 1; Aberdeen 5; Bristol 1; Liverpool 6.

July 19. According to letters from Nantz, the man of war and frigate that were sent from Brest to the Coast of Guiney, returned to that port the 27th of last month, and bring advice, that they found at Annamabo three English men of war, of 60, 50 and 40 guns, and a sloop or tender of 14 guns.

July 21. It it reported, that two ministers of great eminence will soon be called home to their different courts, on account of some difference relating to the taking of two men of war.

Two men of war and three frigates are fail'd to protect our trade on the Coast of Africa.
